By direct cables via Lisbon.

London, 13th The Bank of England has helped the Birkbeck bank, which has now mastered the situation, and the run on it has ceased.

The explorer Peary says that Greenland is an island. This has caused much discussion in scientific circles.

Rome, 13th.—There will be patriotic manifestations in the chief cities of Italy on September 20th, and great preparations are being made to celebrate the date worthily.

The Italian papers call for reprisals in case Austria increases the duty on Italian wines, in contravention of the treaty of commerce.

This attitude of Austria has caused great irritation in Italy, especially amongst the producers of wine

Genoa, 13th—The fetes are at an end. The foreign war-ships are going away. There have been fewer manifestations to the French sailors. Giolitti says he is satisfied with the result of the fetes.

Vienna, 13th.—Mascagni received an ovation at the Opera House at a performance of Cavalleria Rusticana.

Berlin, 13th—The Tageblatt announces that Emperor William will visit the Chicago Exhibition.

Germany is trying to induce the Powers who hold territory in Africa to cooperate for the mutual protection of their subjects. France will not be asked, with the view of isolating her in Africa as in Europe. It is believed that this attempt of Germany will fail.

Paris, 13th—The Republican candidate won the election on Sunday in the Quartier Gallon.

(Per Havas Agency.)

Genoa, 13th—The King and Queen will attend the ball to be given to-night by the French Admiral on board the flagship Formidable. All the officers of the Italian and foreign war-ships in port have been invited.

Madrid, 13th.—The Cortes will meet in the middle of October to discuss the financial Bills.

Berlin, 13th.—The Empress Augusta has been safely delivered of a daughter.

Cholera is slowly decreasing here, and also in Hamburg, and the fear of its spreading further is declining. The news from Havre is still more satisfactory, and it is expected that the epidemic will soon disappear altogether.

St. Petersburg, 13th—Cholera is rapidly decreasing.

(To the "Prensa".)

New York, 12th.—Over a hundred boats with 1000 men and boys armed with shot-guns and pistols left several places on the coast this afternoon for Fire Island, to prevent passengers being placed in quarantine there. Fifty policemen have been sent to protect the passengers. The matter is complicated by an order from the Supreme Court prohibiting the landing of passengers from infected ships on the island.

No cholera as yet in the city. Three fresh cases on board vessels in quarantine.

Explorer Peary has arrived safely at St John's, Newfoundland, from Greenland.

Montreal, 12th.—A rigorous quarantine has been established. No immigrants will be allowed to land on any pretext.

Paris, 12th.—The French forces in Dahomey meet with little or no resistance in their advance.

Fifty-two fresh cases of cholera and thirty deaths here. In Havre nine fresh cases.

Berlin, 12th.—The Emperor has given 30,000 marks to the cholera relief fund.

Hamburg, 12th.—Cholera is spreading. On Sunday 798 fresh cases and 281 deaths. The average is two deaths for every five cases. Large tanks of boiled water have been placed in the public plazas for the use of the people.

THE SILVER QUESTION

Commenting on the position of the American money—market a London paper says—

"Last week the N. York Associated Banks made difficulties about paying out gold, and it looked at one time as if a crisis might occur. The Treasury, meantime, announces that it will continue exchanging all kinds of currency for gold; but the position is critical and the market very weak."

There is only too much reason to fear that the continued coinage of silver by the United States Government will have the effect of a corresponding outflow of gold, and will bring about before long a crisis of the severest kind. The currency (excluding what is held by the Treasury) may be stated thus—

	$
Gold.....	376,000,000
Silver.....	106,000,000
Bank-notes.....	207,000,000
Green-backs.....	699,000,000
Total.....	1,388,000,000

The bullion-reserve of the Treasury, to answer for its Green backs, fluctuates about 900 million dollars in gold and 400 millions in silver. But as silver is now worth only 39 pence per ounce the silver dollar has lost one-third of its intrinsic value. If the banks stop gold payments, or the United States Government be forced to pay the coupons of public debt in silver dollars, the consequences must be disastrous. The American people or the Congress of Washington may pass a law to demonetize gold, and make all debts payable in silver or in notes convertible for silver coin. But the foreign trade of the country will receive a tremendous shock, the results of which no man can foretell.

Meantime the coinage of silver goes on at Washington at the rate of $4,500,000 monthly, and thus every month brings us nearer to the moment when a crash must ensue.

The cause of trouble is the unlucky Bland Act, which compels Congress to buy a certain quantity of silver from the miners at 40 per cent over its market-value, in order to "protect" the silver industry. Thus the people of the United States lose 16 pence on every ounce of silver that is minted, merely to benefit a handful of miners. Here in Argentina we have a similar evil: every ton of sugar that we buy from the sugar-men of Tucuman is a loss of £20 sterling to the public. The blessings of Protection are equally manifest in North and in South America; they bring a country to the verge of ruin for the sordid profit of a small ring of cunning "patriots."

THE PROVINCIAL BANK.

The balance-sheet for August 31st is not a cheerful document. Reducing gold items to currency (at 324) it may be summed up thus:—

	$ currency.
Good bills.....	44,300,000
Official debts.....	25,500,000
Sundries.....	40,400,000
Total.....	110,200,000
Deposits.....	77,900,000
Various liabilities..	28,600,000
Total.....	106,500,000

We have written off $68,000,000 of bad debts from one side of the book and the items of imaginary capital and reserve, $72,000,000, from the other side.

If the assets really amounted to $110,000,000. as above stated, if is clear that the Bank would be perfectly solvent, having a surplus of $3,700.000 currency after paying all its liabilities. We regret to say that such is far from being the case, as will be seen on going over the assets of this once flourishing institution.

Good bills are set down at $44,300,000, but we should not be surprised to find that this item, like Charity, covereth a multitude of sins. If a syndicate of capitalists were formed to take over the affairs of the Bank they would perhaps refuse to take these bills at 50 per cent. To illustrate how well grounded are our fears on this head we turn to the Balance-sheet of March 1891, and find that the item of "bad debts" was stated at $41,400,000, whereas it is now $68,000,000, which shews that $26,600,000 reputed good bills last year are now transferred to the black list.

Official debts constitute an asset of very questionable value, for this item includes $17,000,000 due by the Provincial Mortgage Bank, a bankrupt institution. There is, indeed, some idea of selling 400 sq. leagues of frontier lands, mortgaged to the said bank, in order to pay off this debt of 17 millions, but this would suppose an average price of $42,500, in cash per sq. league, which is absurd. In fact it would appear that official debts are hardly worth 20 per cent of their written amount, say $5,000,000 currency.

Under the head of suudries we find Municipal bonds and other things of a problematical character, but there are two items of real value, viz:—

	$ currency.
Bank building...	2,700,000
Cash	4,640,000
Total.....	7,340,900

Thus the Bank may be said to hold altogether $34,500,000 of unquestionable assets, and the total assets may be estimated at or over $50,000,000

On the other hand the Bank owes its depositors 78 millions, besides 28 million dollars of other liabilities. Every effort should be made to hasten the liquidation, so as to pay 50 per cent to depositors.

Meantime in future balance sheets it would be advisable to expunge in toto the item of $72,000,000 for capital and reserve-fund, which is purely imaginary. So long as the Bank is supposed to have this splendid capital ignorant people will think that it is a shame not to pay the unfortunate depositors.

OUR LONDON LETTER.

THE SILVER FIEND.

(From our own Correspondent.)

Aug. 6th.

Our friend the Statist has lately been over-trading upon its fame acquired by its prophecies on the Argentine collapse. It has made several shots since that have been less successful. Quite recently, as my letter of Saturday last will have reminded you, it has singled out the United States as the next victim of financial difficulties. Its articles on the silver question have called forth smart rejoinders. One from Mr. Walker in Edinburgh it publishes to day. In a leading article it returns to the attack in reply to the New York Commercial and Financial Chronicle and to arguments quoted from the sayings of Mr. Keene. The Statist's answer to the last named gentleman puts the case in a small compass. Mr. Keene is reported to have said that Europe did not appreciate the importance of the defeat of the Free Coinage Bill, whereas that defeat really removed all the dangers of the situation. "If," cries the Statist "Mr. Keene really said this it only proves that he is as ignorant of currency matters as the majority of the Congress. Mr Keene's business is to speculate, not to legislate, and he cannot be greatly blamed if he is not a profound political economist. We have no doubt that had the Free Coinage Bill been passed it would have scared the American public and probably would have precipitated a crisis. But we venture to say, all the same, that if Congress had passed a Free Coinage Bill in 1890 instead of the measure which was actually put upon the Statute Book the result would have been less mischievous."

The Statist proceeds to give its reasons for this opinion, and you will probably be contented with its main point, that the States Treasury with all its power and prestige was unable to get into circulation more than one seventh of the silver coined, and what probability is there that private persons sending silver to the United States mints would have been able since 1890 to have got any of the coins into circulation at all As to the objection that although the Treasury is in a bad way the banks are strong enough to face any contingency, the Statist argues that there is no danger of a commercial crisis or of a banking crisis; what is feared is a depreciation of the paper currency, the rise of gold to a premium and the disappearance of the latter metal from circulation. It is the Treasury not the banks that are in danger—that is, in danger of a run, that no national wealth and prosperity and bankers boards of gold can prevent, if the present silver policy is persevered in

Leaving the Statist, let us take another opinion—the Speaker's. It says the course of the silver market is for the moment the chief preoccupation of the Money Markets of Europe and America. The price of silver on the 4th inst. fell to 39d. per oz. Everybody is forced to confess that the attempt of the United States to raise silver to its old price has failed; but if the United States purchases of 54 million ounces every year are suddenly stopped there must be a panic fall in silver which will disorganise trade in all the silver-using countries. Everywhere the fear that this will happen is paralysing enterprise. Money is accumulating at all the great banking centres, rates of interest and discount continue exceptionally low, and no one cares to engage in new risks. Two bold attempts have been made this week to put up prices on the Stock Exchange. Neither was successful. In New York the great speculators feel that the silver policy of the Government has broken down and that there will be a crisis. They are, therefore, anxious to sell American securities to the European markets, which have ceased to buy. To inspire confidence, the American speculators have been putting up prices. But British investors hold aloof. The Paris speculators have been trying to do the same thing with Continental securities and have signally failed. At this moment United States, Continental and South American securities are inactive, whilst the home railway market is well sustained. I should add that neither in the editorial columns of the Economist or in its New York letter is there a word about a silver crisis. There is one short letter on "Silver in the United States Treasury" from Mr. Edward Atkinson in answer to Mr. Edward Tuck's exceptions to his previous statements. Mr. Atkinson drives another nail into the silver policy now ruling in the States by reaffirming that purchases of silver bullion are paid from current funds in the Treasury that is, the taxes. So long as the notes representing silver deposits were absorbed in the monetary circulation, the payments for bullion did not fall on the tax-payers. The channels of circulation are now full. No more notes are wanted. Bullion is not being coined, therefore all present purchases are paid out of the revenues. "There is sound reason to believe," says Mr. Atkinson, "that such purchases will be stopped by the action of the present Congress, which will meet again in December."

I observe that the Buenos Ayres correspondent of the Economist confirms the London Standard's correspondent's information in regard to the probable "scaling down" of interest on Argentines. It seems also, by your paper, that the same process is about to commence in Uruguay with the railway guarantees. Private information from Montevideo has long since warned some of us that much more than "scaling" railway guarantees may be expected in regard to Uruguayan finance. If you still take interest in Murrieta's affairs you will read the enclosed report of the South American and Mexican Company. The Hon. C. N. Lawrence's address is a straightforward history of the business of a modern financial concern passing through a crisis with locked-up capital. The Report is in the main favourable, as the shareholders are released from the fears of an immediate call.

In general politics there is nothing worth dwelling upon. The House of Commons is busy "swearing in" the members, and protesting against Mr. Kier Hardie's "tweed cap," Mr. Davitt's crusher and Mr. John Burns' billy cock, in precincts where top hats are rigorously prescribed by etiquette.

In social matters the most important event is the murderous assault on two young ladies by a man named Mucklaw, himself only 21 years of age. The young ladies were Miss Philbrick, a niece of Mr. Goschen and a Miss Wood, daughter of the rector of Buckley in the neighborhood of Chiselhurst. They are quite young girls, almost school girls. The fellow met them in the fields and without any reason shot at them and battered their heads. Miss Wood is recovering; but Miss Philbrick is still unconscious and in danger. It is gratifying to know already that what would otherwise be an alarming monster is evidently an epileptic patient.

We remind all the surviving friends of the late venerable Canon Fahy of the Memoriam service to be celebrated on Friday next, in the Passionist Fathers' church. The virtues of the good priest are still green in the memory of those who had the privilege of knowing him, although 21 years have passed away since he joined the great majority.

THE WRECK OF THE ROSALES.

(From the "Nacion.")

Our Correspondent in La Plata sends us the following deposition made by one of the Rosales crew, who managed to escape. The revelations contained therein could not be of a more serious nature, and if they are true, the commander and officers of the shipwrecked vessel are placed in such a light that the Government must not delay one moment in carrying out its duty. Our correspondent says:—

Six days ago, the Italian subject, Antonio Balatta, 19 years of age, presented himself at the Sub-Prefectura of La Plata and expressed his desire to enter as sailor. As there was a vacancy at the time, he was immediately accepted. Two or three days subsequently an adjutant was talking with another person in the presence of this sailor on the subject of the vessels that were best suited to weather heavy storms, and they agreed that sailing vessels had the advantage in that respect over steamers, whereupon the sailor said that had the last vessel in which he was employed been a sailing vessel, he would not have been on the point of being shipwrecked, nor would he have undergone the suffering through which he passed in miraculously saving his life.

Naturally, in view of this statement, he was asked how and in what steamer he had experienced these sufferings. Balatta then related that he was one of the crew of the Rosales, that he had escaped with the officers, that he and others threw themselves into the water when the officer's boat was on the point of starting, but that he being the only good swimmer, was the only one that reached the boat.

If what Balatta relates to have taken place in the presence of the imminent dangers which his companions ran be true, then an act of unexampled atrocity, reflecting no credit on those upon whom so many lives depended, was perpetrated.

Balatta relates the circumstances in the following manner:—

When the Captain and his officers were convinced that all efforts were useless, in view of the injuries inflicted on the vessel by the heavy seas, and that nothing could be done to empty her of the water she had shipped, they decided to embark in one of the boats with two sailors to look after the sails and row. Before abandoning the vessel the quartermaster——, who said he was entrusted with the management of the raft, was called on to lock up in the hold the sailors, who thronged the deck and in despair cried out that they should not be abandoned, while the officers, revolver in hand, kept them back.

It was at this moment that Balatta was wounded with a hatchet just as he was getting into the boat occupied by the officers, and it was at that moment too that the quartermaster already alluded to was killed by a bullet through the head by one of the officers for asking the Captain, on the plea of being sick, to take him in the boat with the officers.

Balatta states that, while they were still near the vessel, they saw the other boat lowered and occupied by sailors; that in the boat in which they were there was a barrel of "caña" (rum), and that some of them arrived at the Lighthouse drunk.

The death of five of them on reaching the shore as well as the other particulars of the journey to B. Ayres, is also related by Balatta, in the manner already known to our readers.

He states that he was under arrest in a picquet of marines until the 6th of August, when he was sent to the Plata, as stoker, in which capacity he had been employed on the Rosales from the 24th of May, on which date he went on board the torpedo-catcher in the Tigre.

Balatta, moreover, states that his pay on the Plata being too little, he went on board the Parana, anchored in this port, but was refused, the crew being complete. It was then that, being without money, he presented himself at the Sub-Prefectura, where he is now employed He was also at one time stoker during 4 months on board the Patagonia and eight on board the Plata.

LATEST FROM CHILE.

Valparaiso, Aug. 24.

The Bill to reorganise the whole staff of public employees, and the public services generally, and to revise the Pensions' List, passed a first reading in the Chamber of Deputies on Saturday. It is proposed that the revision shall be made by a commission composed of three senators and three deputies, selected by the respective Chambers, and three public functionaries or ex-functionaries to be named by the President of the Republic. It is expected that the public service will gain in economy and efficiency from this step, and that many abuses will disappear from the Pensions' List.

We deeply regret to announce the death, after a prolonged illness, of Mr. Donald Campbell, an old and well-known resident. The deceased was a native of Scotland, and came to this country thirty years or so ago, and for a considerable time he held responsible positions in the Pacific Steam Navigation Company's service here and in Callao, and for some time past he had been junior partner in the well-known firm of Lazonby and Campbell of this city. Mr. Campbell leaves a widow and a family of six children.

At a meeting of the Council of State held on Saturday the convention, already approved by Congress, between the Government and the United States Minister for the settlement of the Baltimore claims, was sanctioned. Chile agrees to pay an indemnity of 75,000 dollars, in gold.

The first anniversary of Lo Cañas massacre occurred on Friday, and it was a sad day of mourning in many Santiago families. A memorial service was held in one of the churches, and the papers of the capital contained numerous references to this sanguinary episode of the Reign of Terror. Seventeen of the survivors were photographed in a group by Mr. E. Spencer.

The "Pacific and European Telegraph Company (Limited)" has been registered in London, with a capital of £100,000 in £10 shares, to carry into effect an agreement which has been made between the Brazilian Submarine, the Western and Brazilian, the West Coast of America, and the Pacific and European Telegraph Companies, on the one hand, and Sir John Pender, K. C. M. G., on the other, for the construction and maintenance of telegraphic communication between Buenos Ayres, Valparaiso, and Santiago.

At a farewell banquet given in Santiago, on Saturday, to the retiring Argentine Minister, Señor Uriburu, who has been elected to the Vice-presidency of his country, some very significant language was used by the Minister for Forign Affairs with respect to the relations between Chile and the Transandine Republic, which will go a long way towards allaying the disquieting rumors lately circulated, and which there is good reason to believe are without solid foundation.

The Board of Trade has presented Captain Grendi of the Chilian bark, Reina Margarita, with a binocular in recognition of the assistance he rendered to three sailors of the shipwrecked crew of the British ship, Crown of Italy.

A rather severe earthquake occurred here on Saturday at 7.43 a.m., and it was followed by another shock exactly one hour later. The duration of the first shock was 30 seconds, and of the second about 20. The shocks affected all the zone between the Aconcagua and Maipo rivers, and their direction was from south-west to north-east. — Chilian Times.

LATEST FROM MONTEVIDEO.

Tuesday evening.

The Budget is out. It is by no means a lengthy document. It is to be gathered therefrom that in 1890-91 the revenue was $13,287,000, and the expenditure $17,446,000. There was, therefore, a deficit of over 4 million dollars, which sum was paid out of the revenue of the following year. In 1891 92 the revenue, which was estimated at $15,246,000, amounted only to 12,986,000 dollars, and the expenditure was $14,439,000. There was, therefore, a deficit of close upon 1½ million dollars, thus making an aggregate deficit of over 5½ million dollars. Nevertheless the Government have been able to pay off all except half a million.

The Budget for 1892-93 is as follows:

	$
Revenue.....	12,985,875
Expenditure...	13,616,382

This would leave a deficit of $630,500, to cover which the Government propose to create a tax of 2 per cent on direct inheritances, to reform the slaughter-tax, to restore the import duties which were obtained up to 1887, and to reform certain municipal taxes.

The Budget is accompanied by a message from the Executive deploring the present crisis.

The meeting of the creditors of the English Bank to consider the advisability of accepting the new moratorium took place yesterday, 110 creditors being present. The new moratorium was accepted unanimously. Mr. Behrens was elected delegate to superintend the liquidation on the part of the creditors. After a brief discussion it was decided to vote a monthly salary of $500 gold to each liquidator.

THE NATURALIST IN LA PLATA.

(By W. H. Hudson, C. M. Z. S.)

Mr. Alfred R. Wallace reviews Mr. Hudson's book in these words:

"What renders this work of such extreme value and interest is, that it is not written by a traveller or a mere temporary resident, but by one born in the country, to whom its various tribes of beasts, birds, and insects have been familiar from childhood; who is imbued with love and admiration for every form of life; and who for twenty years has observed carefully and recorded accurately everything of interest in the life-histories of the various species with which he has become acquainted. When we add to this the fact that the writer of this volume is well acquainted with the literature, both old and new, bearing upon his subject; that he groups his facts and observations so as to throw light on obscure problems, and often adduces evidence calculated to decide them; and, in addition to all this, that the book is written in an earnest spirit, and in a clear and delightful style, it becomes evident that not all who attempt to follow in his steps can hope to equal their forerunner.... Other chapters of almost equal interest are those on the habits of the huanaco to go to certain places to die, and on the strange instincts of cattle, such as the excitement caused by the sight and small of blood, that produced by scarlet clothing, and the persecution of the sick and weakly of the herd. These subjects are discussed with a fulness and originality the result of long personal observation, and will command the careful attention of those who are interested in the mental phenomena presented by animals. It remains only to add that the numerous illustrations—photographic reproductions of drawings are at once delicate and characteristic. It will long continue to be a storehouse of facta and observations of the greatest value to the philosophical naturalist, while to the general reader it will rank as the most interesting and delightful of modern books on natural history."

SATURDAY HALF-HOLIDAY.

Mr. Editor.

I am glad to see that the question of the Saturday afternoon Holiday is being brought forward, and feel sure that all that is needed is combined action to secure this boon for a large number of employees who now have no opportunity for Weekday recreation, etc.

As the Y.M.C.A. exists for the benefit of young men I would suggest that that useful association arrange for a deputation to wait on the managers of the Banks to get them closed at 2 p.m. on Saturday. This done, all the principal business houses, etc. will follow suit.

I see no reasonable argument against giving employees Saturday afternoons. If it is done by the Banks and nearly every office in London it is certain it can be done in Buenos Aires, and the result will be, I believe, a great physical benefit to hundreds of young men and others and enable them to work better during business hours.

Policy.

RAILWAY ITEMS.

The N. R. Board have decided to inform the manager of the Argentine Great Western that he has no right to collect 30 cents or any amount whatever from people who enter the station in Mendoza.

Yesterday the Inspector-general sent a circular to the railway inspectors advising them that hence-forward a new engine may run 150,000 kilometres before being submitted to a second examination. After that every engine must be examined and tested after every 100,000 kilometres run.

M. Sampite, representative of the San Cristobal and Tucuman Railway, has asked Government to be allowed to reduce the length of the La Brea Branch by three kilometres, and apply these 3 kilometres of plant towards making a branch to San Miguel, which would be thus included among the guaranteed branches. These branches will act as feeders for the main line, as they connect no less than nine sugar-mills. The Company intend to serve other sugar-mills. The construction of the San Miguel Branch is a matter of great importance, there being 2,000 tons of sugar, 15,000 tons of cane and 10,000 of fuel to be carried during the season, which would represent in freight some $40,000

The Sancho Corral La Brea Branch, which would have a length of 57 kilometres, could easily be reduced by three kilometres without affecting the interests of any party. The national guarantee of these 3 kilometres would be $1,012 gold per annum.

Señora Ercilia de Caret has applied to the Government for $99,738 as indemnity for damages caused on her estate by the Central Northern Extension Works.

We take the following from the Railway News:—

"The length of the connecting link of the Central Argentine line between Capilla del Señor and the junction with the Lujan-Pergamino section will be 30 kilometers (18¾ miles). The point of junction will probably be 6 kilometers (3¾ miles) south of San Antonio station. The distance from Buenos Ayres to San Antonio via Lujan is 73 miles, and by the new route via Capilla del Señor will be 58 miles. The reduction in distance, therefore, between this capital and all points north of San Antonio will be 15 miles by the new route, as compared with the Lujan route.

"From the Central station in Buenos Aires the distance to Rosario by the new route will be 200 miles, compared with 139 miles by the Buenos Ayres and Rosario railway, and 215 miles by the existing route via Lujan.

"We understand that no efforts will be spared to push forward to completion the construction of the new link, and in the absence of any disturbing causes the work would occupy from three to four months. There is a fair prospect that the line may be in service in the early part of 1893.

ROWING CLUBS.

B. Ayres, 12th Sept.

Mr. Editor,

Would you draw attention of our clubs that in case of a boat going adrift it would be impossible for the finder to know to which club it belonged, all the clubs having the same style of boats.

A great fuss is made of wearing badges, but for what object it is difficult to reason. A member of three clubs, which is possible, wearing the badge of each would look like an advertising agent and serve no purpose, whereas the flag painted on each side of the bows might be very serviceable.

A Member.

CONGRESS.

THE SENATE.

General Roca took the chair at 3.30 p. m.

A Message from the Executive was received about the disagreement between the Lord Mayor and the Town Council.

The Deputies sent several Bills sanctioned by them.

The Finance, Petitions, War and Constitutional Committees reported on several Bills.

Several petitions for fishing concessions were received.

Senator Echague presented a Bill to regulate the payment of the salaries of Judges.

$10,000 was voted 'sobre tablas' for a Girls' Asylum in Catamarca.

The was a sharp debate on the proposal of M. Laborde to lay a telegraph-telephone line from this city to Santa Fe. The matter was referred to Committee.

Some pensions were voted and other routine business was transacted, and the House rose.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The population had its appetite for breakfast spoiled yesterday by 'a caso sospechoso' on board the steamer Colombia in port. Some said it was Yellow Jack and others his cousin who lives on the banks of the Ganges. Of course the doctors declare that it is neither one nor the other, but merely influenza in the stomach, 'descompostura internal', or other trifle of the kind. We are inclined to hope that they are right. In any case the STANDARD will appear to-morrow as usual.

Our paralytic barometer gave a sudden downward kick yesterday, and we know what it means: the sudden appearance of Santa Rosa between this and the 21st; so we again recommend skippers in port to look to their anchors and cables and the general public to their hair, lest it be blown off.

The Tigre Boat Club men reversed their prayers in our behalf yesterday for saying that their meeting was to take place at night. It was n't, but will come off to-night, even should Santa Rosa arrive.

The mails for the R.M.S. Tagus close at noon to-day.

There is a magnificent programme for the concert in the German Church on Friday night next, and we strongly recommend all lovers of good music to be there: not outside, listening at the door and getting a concert for nothing; but inside the church, contributing to its funds in return for a grand musical treat.

An open meeting of the Scotch Church Young Men's Society will be held to-morrow evening, at eight o'clock, when the Rev. J. W. Fleming B. D. will lecture on "James Russell Lowell."

The ever popular Marchetti and his talented wife had a bumper benefit at the San Martin on Monday night. He was in splendid form, and brought down the house, especially by his rendering of the two French songs "Revenant de la Revue" and "Derriere l'Omnibus".

Mr. John Russell, manager of the Bieckert Brewery, sent round yesterday polite invitations to a beer party on the premises to-day at 2 p. m, to taste his new beers, which we hear are splendid; and we'll be there whether we feel thirsty or not.

The latest news from Montevideo is that the versatile President of B. O. means to be his own Finance Minister till he sets the Uruguay house in order. If so, the Greek Kalends will find him hammering away at what he knows nothing about: unless a patriotic skirtdance alias revolution, cut his abstruse calculations short.

Last Friday night some sacrilegious thieves broke into the Jackson Chapel at Atahualpa, at Montevideo, and stole the chalice, some silver candlesticks, and other articles of value.

We have late papers from Paraguay but can find nothing wildly exciting in them. They are all so healthy in Asuncion that on the 5th inst there was not a single death in that city. There is a tobacco and hide ("dos cosas buenas") Bill before the Chambers which seems to have the support of the commercial community; so we give it ours, free of charge. The Villa Morra Tramway has been heavily fined for helter-skelter driving.

We have been handed a letter for Captain Dobney and will thank him to call for it.

Government has conceded to the Archbishop the right to send telegrams free on the National lines: the same privilege as enjoyed by Government departments.

There is a little unpleasantness in pedagogue circles in learned Cordoba owing to one of the professors in the School of Application having appeared before his class in that condition so delicately described by Babby Burns as "o'er all the ills of life victorious."

A North American exchange publishes the following episode of the great civil war:—

"Congressman Belknap of Michigan was a private in the volunteer service in the civil war, under 17 years of age, in the cavalry. One night, after a day of hard fighting, he rode into the Confederate camp to the tent quarters of General Wheeler, found it vacant, bade the guide to hold his horse for a moment, took all the loose papers he found, and rode back to his own camp. On Wheeler's return he issued an order to have Belknap shot on sight. Wheeler is now a member from Alabama—he a Democrat and Belknap a Republican, both on the same committee and very warm personal friends. Belknap wss raised to a captaincy while 17 for his exploit. Wheeler showed him the Confederate order for his death lately, at a sitting of the committee, and all had fun over the reminiscence."

The Chilian Times and Western Courier give glowing accounts of three amateur performances in Valparaiso of Gilbert and Sullivan's H. M. S. Pinafore. Miss Delano appeared as Josephine, Mr. Heffer as Ralph Rackstraw, Mr. R. Weir as Sir Joseph Porter K. C. B., Mr. D. Pike as Captain Corcoran and Mr. Bowman as Dick Deadeye. The performances brought in over eight thousand dollars for charities.

The Lord Mayor has come down on the raffle of a Chalet in Quilmes and stopped the sale of tickets, as he smells a rat in the business. The Golondrinas Chalet raffle at Green Lomas is all right, all the legal requisites having been strictly complied with. We'd like to win that Chalet.

A letter from Bellville, Cordoba, reports the first bloody battle with the Locusts and their defeat with enormous loss. The neighbours turned out on foot and horseback, charged and charged again on the invaders in front, flanks and rear, and after an hour's fierce fight ing the insects rose in the air and fled southwards "en masse."

Don Carlos Vale was robbed the other night of $1,800 by some heartless thieves who had not even the decency to leave him a "vale" for the amount.

A Regatta Club is to be started in Sleepy Hollow, alias Santa Fe. Mr. John Beleno is bossing the new aquatic club.

The Rosario papers are in fits of delight with the Bernis opera troupe. Otello "took the cake."

He: Are you coming to see my pictures?—She: No, thanks; quite enough horrors in the papers.—

The Duke of Portland, who is one of the richest noblemen in England, has just added 20,000 acres to his shooting-preserves. The Duke has now 80,000 acres, or 125 square miles, reserved solely for the use of his gun.

The Nacion has revealed what the public has been whispering with bated breath for weeks in reference to the loss of the Rosales. We translate the dreadful tale in another column.

Another gem for our restored Museum: a copy of the Diario de la Tarde of December 6th 1842. As a heading for "On 'Change," which then consisted solely of a price current, we find the historical words "Viva la Confederacion Argentina! Mueran los Salvages Unitarios!"

Cabbage has always been held as a preventive of intoxication; and the Egyptians ate boiled cabbage before their other food if they intended to indulge in moist groceries afterwards. This is a valuable hint for Temperance people: but they should keep it to themselves.

The long and windy Army Reform Law published yesterday has not pleased the public, who think that the best reform for the army is to let it alone, and reduce its cost and that of the navy, now that the great wish of the nation is to arrange with its creditors and settle down to work hard for six years under Dr. Saenz Peña's Government. As regards the National Guard the chief reform is a fixed date for inscription: January in each year.

We are glad to note that public opinion will not allow the monstrous new Social Evil legislation of the City Duffers to pass unchallenged. There was a meeting in Dr. Medina's house in Calle Defensa on Monday to organize vigorous opposition to the disgraceful measure and every decent man in the city, Argentine and foreigner, should join the movement. The C. D's did not meet on Monday, being, probably, ashamed of themselves.

We note that the home papers speak in most flattering terms of Mr. W. H. Hudson's interesting work. "The Naturalist in La Plata." Nature declares that it is "altogether unique among books on natural history." The Athaenaeum, Natural Science, and many other professional and lay papers give it equally high praise: on which we beg to offer the talented writer our congratulations. It is a feather in Argentina's cap that one of her sons has secured such a high niche in Nat. Science fame.

Oh! Air and music diet again. The employees of Dock Three of the port have not received a shinplaster of their pay since June last. A three months' fast, owing to the loose condition of Argentina's purse.

Mr. Decousandier's lecture on Locusts before the Rural Society some nights ago is of great interest just now when the insect Goths and Vandals are at our gates, and Congress is legislating about the pest in its usual fashion. Mr Decousandier advises that the flying locusts be destroyed at night by fire, and the jumping locusts be caught in ditches. The locusts have a partiality for laying their eggs in the railway embankments, and the Railway companies ought to be compelled to destroy them there. He also proposes to introduce birds that eat locusts. We dread this latter remedy. Birds who are forcibly expatriated generally resent such interference with their patriotism by playing the devil with their new country, as the European sparrow has done in Australia, if we remember aright.

The numerous River Plate friends of Sir Edmund Monson will be glad to learn that the Queen has given him the Grand Cross of the Order of St. Michael and St George. Sir Edmund has had a long and varied diplomatic career. He entered the service in 1856, and one of his first appointments was that of secretary to Lord Lyons at Washington. He has also filled the offices of Consul at the Azores, Consul-General for Hungary, Minister Resident and Consul-General to Uruguay, Envoy Extraordinary to this Republic, and Minister Plenipotentiary to the Republic of Paraguay, to Denmark, and to Greece. He was transferred to Brussels only a few months ago.

Advices from the Sub-Prefect at Pilcomayo say that a cloud of locusts ten leagues long passed over that part of the Chaco the other day. The head of the devastating column appeared from the North, going due South, at 8 o'clock in the morning, and the clock struck 5 p.m. as the last stragglers of the rear guard disappeared from sight. It is much to be feared that the locusts are much more seriously bent on business this year than last. Reade to the rescue!

The "penny in the slot" nuisance at home has at last been turned to a useful purpose. On the penny being placed in the slot and a turn given to the handle a little book, 3¼ inches by 2¼ inches wide, presents itself to the applicant. This packet is in the form of an envelope, containing a small memorandum-book holding a penny postage stamp in a slit in the cover and enclosing a small card. Short communications could be written on this card, or longer ones on the blank pages with which the book is provided. The written communication—either card or book—could be at once closed, addressed, stamped and posted at the 'buzon' near which the machine may be placed.

We clip the following from our newsy contemporary the Uruguay News and welcome Mr. Russell Dart and family to B. Ayres:—"We regret to learn that Montevideo is about to lose one of its most esteemed families. Mr. Russ

ON 'CHANGE.

Tuesday, September 13th 1892.
The gold market continued with a firm, rising tendency this morning, confirming the belief of those who argue that over-speculation is at the bottom of the rise in the gold premium. No rumors of an alarming nature ruffled the surface of the speculation, and the march of affairs was not disturbed by any untoward event. In fact, everything appeared to favor the fall in gold, yet the premium rose in a very firm market.
Fifteen thousand ounces changed hands at the first ring; the price opened at $53.30, rose to $53.40, and closed hard at $53.30, say 227.49% premium. One hundred sovereigns were sold at $16.55, say 228.36% premium. The market closed firm, with a bullish tendency.
Patriotic Bonds continued firm and a fair amount of business was done. About a quarter of a million changed hands at 73.20 to 73.30 for cash, to-morrow, and the end of the month. Internal bonds were also more active at 67.80 to 67.60 for cash and end of the month; the market closed slack.
Catalinas shares rose again this morning and at one time looked very bullish, but the speculation was dull. Prices closed at 10.90 for cash and end of month. Obligaciones were much firmer at 1 and 1.10. Municipal Consols were in stirring demand, jumping to 59. La Plata Cedulas were very firm at 30 and 30.10.
Exchange was maintained at yesterday's rates and brokers look forward to a heavy rise between this and the end of next month. Discounts were easy.
The following is a summary of the business effected in stocks and shares at the first ring to-day:—

Gold on time is no longer so much offered. There are still sellers at 10 to 15 cents backwardation for the end of October, but these sellers are few, as the difference is not enticing. It is well to bear in mind, however, that last week there were far more sellers of gold on time than to-day; this is no doubt caused by the great firmness of the gold premium.
Mr. Ignacio Irigoyen was appointed Minister of Finance of the Government of Buenos Ayres yesterday. Let us hope that the new Minister will be able to Engineer Luis Valiente Noailles has applied to the Government for right to transfer to the Pacific and European Telegraph Company Ld., of London, represented here by Mr. William Slater, the concession he obtained for the construction of a telegraph line between this capital and the Chilian frontier, along the railway lines of the Buenos Ayres Pacific Co., the Great Western Argentine Co., and Transandine Railway Co. This concession was granted in December last year and is in connection with a similar concession of the Chilian Government.

At the general meeting of the shareholders of the Puerto de San Nicolas Company, a concern we mentioned at length in our last issue, it was resolved to approve the report and balance-sheet presented by the Board. Six Directors were also elected, viz: William Arning, jr., Dr. E. Quesada, Samuel Hale Pearson, Mr. T. Marenco, Adolfo Luca and A. Sastre. Mr. Remigio Tomé, auditor, was re-elected.

Mr. Piñeyrua, the great Oriental saladerista, has taken back the Guaviyu saladero, which is good news for all our saladero friends.

Messrs Mackinley Hnos, the well-known auctioneers and land brokers, sold yesterday:—

House Calle Corrientes, Nos 459, 461 and 467, old building, 10,608 metres front by 30.438 metres irregular depth, for 56,000 dols.; buyer, Dr Manuel Maria Escalada.

House Calle Callao No. 1635, 10.82 metres front by 24.24 metres depth for 65,000 dols.; buyer, Mr. George Corbett.

Lands in Temperley, three squares distant from the railway station, at 56 cents per square vara; buyer, Mr. A. Labro.

The Paraguayan Government is making strenuous efforts to foment immigration and create new colonies, and we have received by the last mail from Asuncion pamphlets printed in English and giving all the by-laws for the formation of a new agricultural colony in the department of Cazapá, with an extension of 12 square leagues of Government lands with frontage on the railway from Asuncion to Villa Encarnacion and running back to the river Pirapo. The "manzana" or farms are divided into lots of 8 squares front by 8 squares depth, with road on its four sides. To each agricultural family half a block will be given at the price of $2 the square of 10,000 varas in ten annual payments, or, if the colonist prefers to pay at sight for $1 the square: a married couple is considered a family, and, if a family distinguish itself by its industry, 4 lots of 16 squares in each lot will be conceded on the same terms, and any family having cultivated and sown 16 squares within two years from time of starting will get a present of half a block of 32 squares. The Government gives to each family when starting a milch cow and calf, and pair of oxen, ploughs, seeds, and all necessary implements; and to families that cannot maintain themselves, 40 cents a day to each adult and half that for children for the first 6 months, which advances must be returned to the Government within 6 years. Every family must within the first 6 months have 20 fruit trees planted and have sown 10 lines of 100 varas each of maize, mandioca, mani, beans, sweet potatoes, sugar cane and rice. We give all these particulars in the hope that it may attract the attention of those who may wish to avail of such liberal offers. Major Barrit, with some of his lieutenants might easily start a Salvation colony, which under his able direction would be sure to prosper, and parties taking an interest in the matter may gather still further details by calling at our office and inspecting the pamphlet.

The following bitter paragraph from the Investor's Review published in London, August 1892, will instruct our readers as to the tone of feeling in the London Market which still exists respecting the firm of Baring Brothers and Buenos Aires:—

"Considering all that has come and gone, there was an audacity almost worthy of success in the appearance of the name of Baring upon a prospectus of another Argentine loan. In the second week of June the new limited firm of Baring Brothers & Co. offered to the public a loan of £1,000,000 in bonds of the Western Railway of Buenos Ayres. This it did for the old firm in liquidation, part of whose assets, the bonds were. The Bank of England had sold these bonds to sundry contractors, who in turn had succeeded in getting them underwritten in the market 2 per cent below the price at which they were offered to the public. Superficially the transaction did not look so very absurd, for it was not a State loan which was offered, but the bond of an old railway presumed to be prosperous. Had it not been for the bitter memories of loss evoked by the names "Baring" and "Buenos Ayres", a 5 per cent mortgage bond at 99½, the price asked from the public, might have looked in a manner cheap. But the investing public did not fancy it, and we cannot blame them. The underwriters had to take about 96 per cent of the loan, and it is fitting that they should be allowed to keep it for a year or two until we see what comes of this promiscuous, all-embracing guarantee."

The River Plate Railway News, which is admirably edited and got up gives the following, which will doubtless much interest many of our readers:—

"The Southern Railway is making provision for the expected accession of traffic by building storage accommodation in the Constitucion station, a shed 800 feet by 50 having been commenced on the 29 th ult. It is expected to be ready for use early in November, and will provide storage room for 1600 wagons of produce on the ground and upper floors.

"The Buenos Ayres Western Railway is also erecting a shed of similar capacity in its Once de Setiembre station, and these two companies will thus be in a better position to meet the pressure on their resources which is anticipated to arise within the next six months.

"The other railways are also making preparations for the busy season which is expected by all the Companies, and, if anticipations are fulfilled, the principal lines will show very much better results in 1893 than those attained during the preceding two years. We certainly expect to see a very considerable rise in Argentine railway stocks on the London market before long."

The arrival of a large lot of fine Rambouillet rams at the Railway station, Bahia Blanca, for different sheep farmers in the neighbourhood caused much attention down there last week. It is, as we have frequently mentioned before, that down in those Southern districts sheep farming is making greater strides than up here in the North. Most of the Basque brick layers and Italian navvies who worked on the Southern Railway and upon the Bahia Blanca N Western, and who saved their wages and their earnings, are now comfortable, well to do sheep farmers on the fiscal lands in the 5th section, where up to the present they have had to pay no rent; now however, as the sheep within the last few years have given on those lands from 40 to 50 % increase, these sheep-farmer squatters have to push further out, and flocks of sheep are met with on all sides, up to the confluence of the Neuquen. It is difficult to get any more fiscal property rent free; and the Basques are now paying to people in town who have lands down there and nothing on them, $600 a league per annum and we know of a contract just concluded for 8 leagues of lands for 5,000 dollars a year rent, the tenant also paying Contribucion Directa.

All the people in Lobos are preparing for the fair which begins on the 25th. The charges are; for cows and horses $1 per head in galpon and in corral 20 cents per head; for sheep 50 cents a head in galpon and 10 cents in corral: 1% cent charged on all sales, and forage for the account of the owners. It is thought that the fair will be the greatest ever held in Lobos.

From Messrs Williams and Company's interesting shipping circular for the fortnight we take the following:—

B. Ayres shipping report.
B. Ayres, Sept. 1st 1892.

Freight report—

Steamers—The business done during the past month has been very small and rates are to-day entirely nominal. Several steamers in port are trying to fix but shippers are unable to offer cargo at any rate. After 14s. was accepted for parcel lots at Rosario for Liverpool or Antwerp, all that is to-day obtainable is 10s. to 12s. and even at this figure it is impossible to find sufficent cargo to fill a boat of 3000 tons. The nominal rate from La Plata is 8s. with very little cargo offering.

Sailers—The rates paid have been somewhat irregular, as the only business that has been done has been for limited cargoes for shipment by a fixed date, as the list of charters effected below will show. The only order at present in the market is for a ready vessel of 1000 tons for which 15s. is offered. It is generally thought that the export of wheat and maize will take a spurt on receipt of more favorable news from Europe, as there is still a large quantity left in excess of the requirements for local consumption. Hay freights to Brazil have suffered a fall to $2 to Rio and $2.50 to $3 for Santos owing to the number of steamers which have engaged cargoes for these ports.

List of charters effected during August 1892 in B. Ayres—

British brg. Arbutus, 396 tons, from Boca to New York with general cargo, rate reserved.

Rio Segundo Brewery.

Stout and Pale Ale

These beers were reported on by the famous Analyst Dr. Arthur Hill Hassall of London, the greatest authority on the subject in the world, and pronounced to be well brewed beers and free from metallic or other impurities. They are brewed from genuine Malt and Hops, without any admixture of chemicals, and pasteurized to preserve them in good condition for an indefinite period.

Commercial Bank

When they finish the three cornered fight going on at present between the Landlord, the Directory of the above mentioned Bank, and the old Lady Justice, as to whether or not the Directors must return the rooms in our rear lately occupied by them, in the same condition as they took them, we shall be able to fit them up to make room for our marine and Hail Insurance Departments, trusting that until that time our increasing clientage will kindly excuse the annoyances that follow from lack of space

La Porteña insures all kinds of grain crops against Hail Storms, at fair premiums, and notes of responsable parties are accepted, payable at the end of the harvest.

Ask for a printed state of the Company at present, and a list of the losses paid at the offices of the Company Nos. 142 and 146 San Martin Street. Carlos Abbee Holt, Manager. Rosario branch No. 388 Comercio Street Miguel Grandoli, Manager.

HORSFORDS

PHOSPHATIC

BAKING POWDER

BARON LIEBIG, the world-renowned chemist said, "I have though a great series of experiments, satisfied myself of the purity and excellence of your preparation. The bread has no acid, is easily digested, and of the best taste. Aside from the conveniences this invaluable idea of yours has provided, I consider this invention as one of the most useful gifts which science has made to mankind! It is certain that the nutritive value of the flour will be increased 10 per cent by your invention, and the result is precisely the same as if the fertility of our wheatfields had been increased by that amount.

What a wonderful result is this!"

EXTRACT OF TOBACCO.

According to numerous testimonials which we hold the extract of pure tobacco is the only infallible remedy to radically cure the scab in sheep and naturally the cheapest. As there are several trade marks like ours care must be taken to see that the extract bears the key marks, without which it is not genuine.

Directions for use

One part of extract mixed with 100 to 150 parts of hot or cold water for bath, and with 80 to 100 parts for hand curing.
